| | SUBJECT: | Draft Report on Television in CIA |
| | REFERENCE: | A. Office of the Inspector General Survey of Television in CIA (June 1985) |
| | | B. Memo from IG to DDS&T dtd 13 Jun 85 |
| | Television in the television produce processing activities and the members of the processing activities. However, agency television should be footnot include foreign initial processing subtitles; and ne CIA and other U.S. 2. Our communication of the processing activities and the processing subtitles; and the processing activities and the processing activities. | reviewed the referenced Inspector General's Survey of e CIA (draft) and believe that, in view of its focus on ction to the virtual exclusion of collection and ities, the survey should be retitled to reflect that er, we also believe that to give a more rounded view of a activities, major FBIS ongoing projects and plans ted or mentioned in the report. Current FBIS projects TV collection in response to Community requirements; and to include standards conversion, translation, and ear real-time delivery as a raw intelligence product to S. Government consumers. The ments below enlarge upon, and in some case update, in the draft report: |
